
Testimonials

"VEC's ...financial counseling and direction have been truly invaluable... we utilized VEC's marketing expertise, including facilitating a Focus Group, to help us identify existing, and potential problems and opportunities". Sister Sheila McGinnis, Center for Human Integration

"... we want to thank VEC for a solid training session for the members of our new Board. VEC's counsel over the past year and a half has been crucial for the transition of the Orchestra into a true non-profit board structure. Joe Hochreiter, President of the Youth Orchestra of Bucks County

"Thank you so much for all you did to make the Nursing Mothers Advisory Council's recent "retreat" so thought provoking and productive ... for the organization as a whole it was amazingly energizing..." Marie Barnhardt, President, Nursing Mothers Advisory Council

Specialized Seminars For NonProfit Organizations

If you are searching for ideas to help you fund, market and manage your nonprofit organization, you can find them at VEC's specialized seminars. You'll enjoy and benefit from a discussion on topics that will help you and your organization. Presenters are experts in their specialty areas.

You will also have a chance to meet and network with your peers.

Ask VEC about developing custom seminars for your organization.

AFFORDABLE CONSULTING HELP FOR SMALL AND MID-SIZE NONPROFITS

HELP WHEN YOU NEED IT.

YOU ARE: A small or mid-sized not-for-profit agency.

YOU NEED: HELP to meet the multiple challenges that keep you up at night.

YOU LACK: The financial resources to hire staff and high-priced consultants to help you resolve those issues.

YOUR ANSWER: Volunteer Executive Consultants (VEC), an RSVP of Montgomery County service that has been providing expert and affordable counseling services for more than 25 years.

VEC is a team of retired business executives with skills in a multitude of areas. They volunteer their time to assist small and mid-sized nonprofit agencies.

A typical assignment includes an initial fact-finding meeting to determine your needs, issues and challenges. That is followed up with a proposal to help you address issues in a cost-effective manner. We recognize your organization's limited resources. Small fees may be charged which flow directly back to RSVP services within the community.
