

MEET THE FUNDERS 2017 - OUR PANELISTS

CAITLIN SEIFRITZ is a librarian at the Regional Foundation Center (RFC) at the Free Library of Philadelphia. She has been with the Free Library for 4 years serving in a variety of roles and departments helping the public access library resources and improve their digital literacy skills. In her current role, Caitlin informs the local nonprofit sector about the resources available at the RFC. Before becoming a librarian, Caitlin worked for the Brooklyn-based nonprofit Older Adults Technology Services (OATS) as a Technology Trainer and Special Projects Coordinator. Caitlin has a Masters of Library and Information Science from Pratt Institute. Contact: seifritzc@freelibrary.org

VIRGINIA FRANTZ is the President & CEO of The Montgomery County Foundation, Inc., a community foundation. Ms. Frantz has 26 years of experience in the non-profit sector. The Foundation is also a partner in the Your Way Home Mont. Co. Initiative, a project addressing homelessness. Ms. Frantz and the Foundation have received two National Grants to implement a Civic Engagement Project for people 55+ years of age. Additionally, the Foundation developed and implemented www.211sepa.org, a web based resource directory for the public and for agency use containing health and human service agency information for the five county region. Virginia is a member of the Council on Foundations, Philanthropy Network, Past President of The Montgomery County

ANDREA BRETTING, Senior Program Officer of Claneil Foundation, has many years of experience with local, national and international nonprofits. She began her career in Philadelphia as a community social worker. While living in Berlin, Germany, she worked for the Amadeu Antonio Stiftung, a foundation that addresses anti-Semitism and furthers the development of a democratic civil society. Before joining the Claneil Foundation in 2008, she was an associate director at the United Way of Southeastern Pennsylvania. Andrea serves on the Steering Committee of the Health and Environmental Funders Network and the American Friends of Action Reconciliation/Service for Peace. As a DAAD fellow of the German Academic Exchange Program, Andrea earned her BA/MA in Social Work in Cologne, Germany. She also holds an MA in International Development from American University in Washington, DC. Contact: abretting@claneil.org

MEET THE FUNDERS 2017 - OUR PANELISTS

ANDY REID is currently Economic Development Representative for Pennsylvania, Central and Southern New Jersey, and Delaware for the U. S. Economic Development Administration . He has over 20 years of experience in a wide range of venues including the federal government, a local government agency, non-profit organizations and at state association levels. Formerly he was a Management Analyst for the Community Trade Adjustment Assistance agency of the US Department of Commerce and served as the Redevelopment Agency Manager for the city of Pinole, CA. His areas of expertise include Economic development, Finance, Development negotiation, Deal structuring, Microenterprise, Technical assistance, Facilitation, and Economic Strategy. Contact: areid@eda.gov

SHERESSA GORDON is Program Associate with The Philadelphia Foundation. She is responsible for reviewing requests for funding, managing special grantmaking processes, and providing ongoing technical assistance to potential and successful grantees. In 2014, Sheressa joined the Grantmaking Services team as the Donor Advised Funds Officer, ensuring the efficient and accurate payment of grants from donor advised funds. A native of Jamaica, Sheressa has lived in the US for the past 31/2 years and is very interested in issues of immigration. She, her husband and young son live in Overbrook Park in West Philadelphia. Contact: sgordon@philafound.org

Thanks to our Generous 2017 Meet the Funders Sponsors