

Harnessing the Power of Volunteerism for 50 years

RSVP

RSVP empowers volunteers to improve the education and wellness of vulnerable populations.

Currently, more than 1,200 adults are actively volunteering virtually and in their communities benefiting 11,000 vulnerable residents. For 50 years, RSVP has been helping adults find just the right challenge.

RSVP Volunteers Choose from hundreds of local opportunities

Community-Based Programs connect volunteers directly to our 200+ partner agencies.

Opportunities include:

- Delivering meals-on-wheels or staffing food pantries
- Helping sort donations or assisting with check out at local thrift shops
- Helping to increase economic opportunities for adults through GED, ESL and basic literacy tutoring
- Staffing local blood drives
- Providing office support to local nonprofit agencies

RSVP Impact Programs

Directly enhancing the lives of community members

Programs have been adapted to COVID safety protocols and are also virtual

Children & Youth

Family Literacy. Read books to Head Start preschoolers to help develop their reading skills and prepare them for learning.

America Reads. Be a supportive reading coach and help K-4 students to read with more confidence.

Virtual Literacy. Volunteers support a student in grades 1-5 with reading and comprehension through an online reading program.

Virtual Classroom Assistant. Volunteers assist teachers and students in virtual classrooms.

STEM Career Presentations. Professionals with STEM careers inspire students through recorded or in-person presentations.

My Free Tutor. Volunteers work with elementary through high school students to improve math proficiency via online tutoring.

Adults and Seniors

Math Tutoring for Veterans. Volunteers help to improve math skills of veterans to prepare them to enter college and the workforce.

Medicare Counseling. PA MEDI is a public program of the PA Dept. of Aging. State trained counselors offer advice on Medicare coverage, options and assistance programs.

Senior Technology Training. Provide online training for older adults to use email, the internet, Zoom and social media so they can connect with family and friends.

Nonprofit Agencies

Volunteer Executive Consultants. VEC volunteers are business professionals who help build the management capacity of nonprofits in the region.

Corporate Partnerships

RSVP engages corporate partners through virtually adapted programs in order to respond to the needs of students, families and teachers in our area.

Opportunities include reading to students during a weekly 30-minute online session, virtually tutoring students in math, recording STEM career presentations, and so much more. Projects are customized and integrate corporate goals and initiatives.

Corporate partners include Renewal by Andersen, Janssen, Peoples Security, Citadel, SEI, CCRES, West Pharma, Equitable Advisors, UBS, AmeriCorps Seniors, United Way, and others

RSVP is certified as an Educational Improvement Organization. Corporations may qualify for an EITC or CRA tax credit by partnering with RSVP.
